

Welding Fundamentals II

April 27-May1

This week homework assignment is to review and finish any past assignments that are incomplete. Then take the knowledge that you have learned and create a weld diagram of a chair with measurements and weld procedures listed. If you complete this assignment, take a picture of the weld diagram and email it to me at guille@centralschools.org. As always if you have any questions you can email those as well.